

THE DUBLIN REVIEW.

87

THIRD SERIES.

VOL. IV.

JULY—OCTOBER.

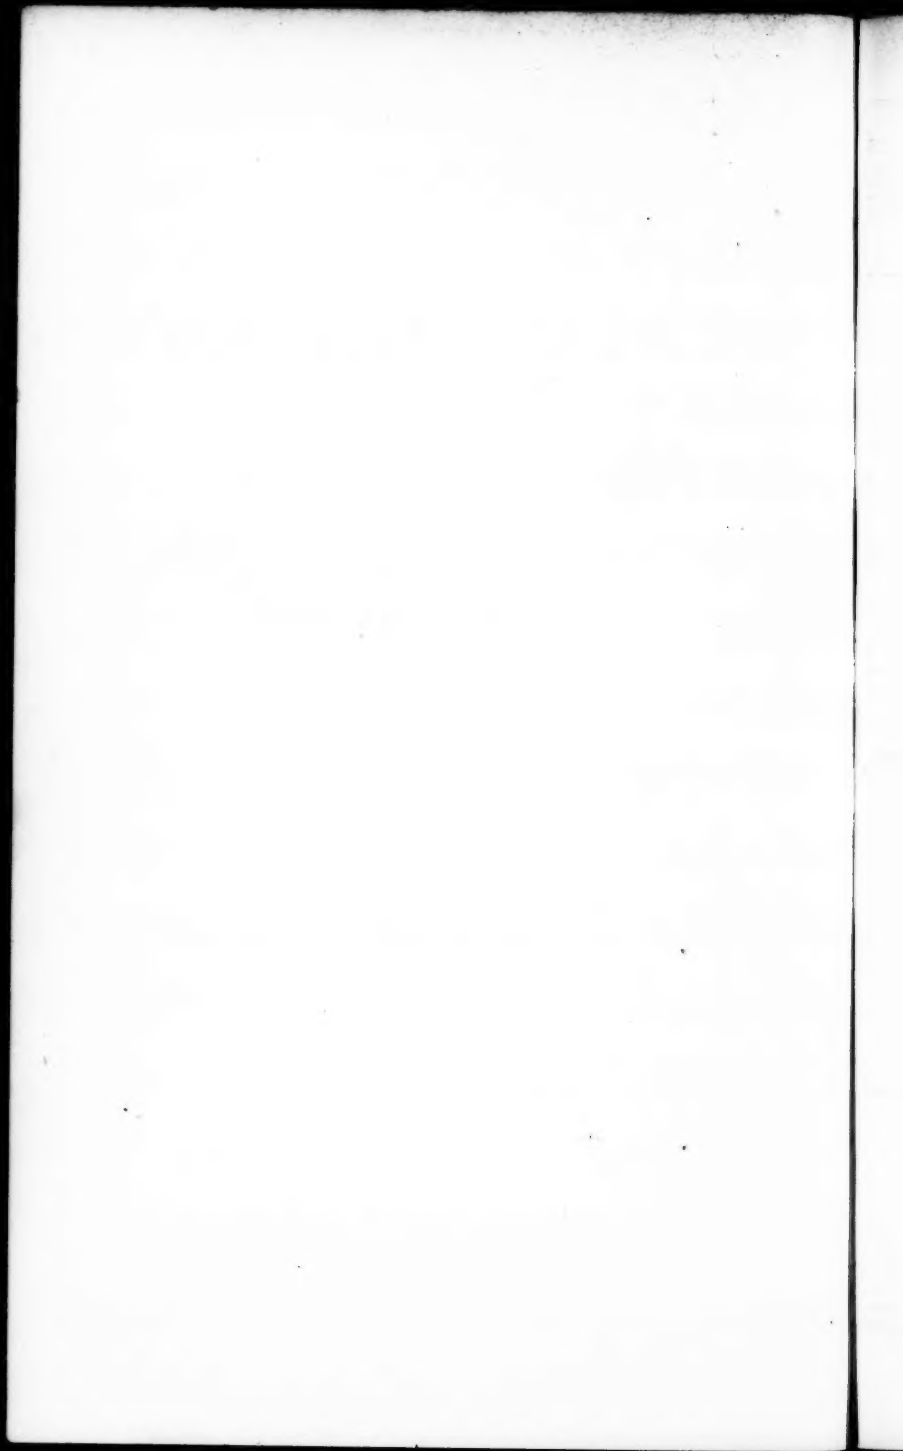

MDCCCLXXX.

PUBLIC LIBRARY
DETROIT MICH.
SEP 17 1888

LONDON: BURNS & OATES.

DUBLIN: M. H. GILL & SON.

—
1880.

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
ART. I.—THE CHARACTER OF CICERO	1
Apology for a study of Cicero—His aim : greatness through eloquence—Character of his eloquence—His philoso- phical writings—His epistles—His moral character : his purity—Domestic virtues—Friendships—Character as a politician—His religious character.
ART. II.—THE GREEK CHURCH, ITS HISTORY AND FUTURE . . .	22
The Greek Schism—Character of Photius—His efforts to deceive the Pope—His success and fall—Character of Michael Cerularius—He sets aside Pontifical authority —His dishonesty—Schism continues after his death— Attempts at reunion; councils of Lyons and Florence —Description of present Greek Church—Patriarchs, bishops, priests, monasteries, rites and fasts.
ART. III.—THE APOSTLE OF IRELAND AND HIS MODERN CRITICS .	59
Jealousy of Catholics for traditions of their Saints—Ob- jections against Catholic view of St. Patrick: Discre- pancies in the Lives—Number and character of his miracles—His superhuman work—Special criticism of Dr. Todd and Rev. J. F. Shearman—Dr. Todd refutes himself—Mr. Shearman's theory—His inaccuracy— Reply to him—Reasons for the controversies against the Catholic St. Patrick.
ART. IV.—CHURCH AND SCHOOL IN MAURITIUS.	87
Bishop Collier's arrival and wonderful work—Effects of Great Revolution on Mauritius—Conversion of the newly affranchis —Fervour and charity of people— Opening of churches, schools, and convents—Present state of Church — Nuns and people — Government v. Church on primary education—Opposition to Church —Catholic demands—Prospects.

	PAGE
ART. V.—DR. WARD'S DOCTRINAL ESSAYS]	115
General effect of Dr. Ward's writings on Doctrine in the DUBLIN REVIEW—His Apologia —Reasons why many Catholics disliked his line—Importance of his exposition of the Church's Infallibility in her ordinary magisterium —Reasons why this point had been overlooked—The Munich school—Dr. Ward's powers of exposition— His exposition of Catholic spirit against the Unionists —Usefulness of this—Dr. Ward seems to overlook a practical difficulty.
ART. VI.—ST. CATHERINE OF SIENA	128
Three-fold fitness of the present publication—The fifth centenary—The Patroness of Rome—The type of the power of faith and asceticism—Excellence of the bio- graphy—St. Catherine's espousals and supernatural favours — Her saintly heroism—Her human indivi- duality and homely character—Her spiritual family— Her public mission—She becomes the peacemaker of Italy—And effects the return of the Pope from Avignon —The Great Schism—The Saint's sacrifice of life ac- cepted for the Holy See—Her own description of her agony—St. Catherine's devotion to the peace of Rome —Her influence to rouse enthusiasm for the cause of captive Rome.
ART. VII.—THE SUPPRESSION OF THE CONGREGATIONS IN FRANCE.	155
Rejection of Article 7 of the Ferry Bill—Consequent debate in the Senate—Declaration of the Government —Report, and two Decrees of Suppression—Conse- quence of the suppression of the teaching Congregations of Men—and especially of the Jesuits—Sketch of the teaching work of the Society—Unanimity of the Epis- copate in favour of the Jesuits—Extracts from letters of the Bishops—What will happen on the 29th of June? —“Consultation” of MM. Vatimesnil, Berryer, &c., in 1845—Opinion of M. Baragnon—Speech of M. Lamy —The law courts—What can the Government do?— —What should the Catholics do?—(Note) The “Con- sultation” of M. Rousse.

Contents.

iii

NOTICES OF CATHOLIC CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS PAGE 184

Katholik — Historich-politische Blätter — Stimmen aus Maria Laach—La Civiltà Cattolica—La Scuola Cattolica—Revue Catholique.

NOTICES OF BOOKS 193

Dr. Ward's Reply to Dr. Bain—Allies' A Life's Decision —Mrs. Ward's St. Thomas of Canterbury—O'Neil's Refutation of Darwinism—Gladstone's Gleanings of Past Years —Nilles' Kalendarium Ecclesiæ orientalis et occidentalis—Schneider's Benedicti XIV. de Sacrificio Missæ—Canon Raine's Historians of the Church of York—Armellini's Cimitero di S. Agnese—Burke's Historical Portraits of the Tudor Dynasty—Hagenbach's History of the Reformation—Dr. Abbott's Oxford Sermons —Cook's Monday Lectures —Dr. Lauder Lindsay's Mind in Lower Animals—Dr. Flint's Theism and Anti-Theistic Theories —Bonney's Sermons on Questions of the Day—Dean Church's Dante—Hamilton Wright's Zechariah—De Combis' Compendium Theologiæ—Cardinal Hosius's Theatrum Virtutum and Acta Historica—Janssen's Geschichte des Deutschen Volkes —Archbishop Trench's Poems—Bishop Bigandet's Life of Gaudama—Father Knight's Life of Alfred the Great —Father Pius Devine's Eutropia—Archbishop Gibbon's Faith of our Fathers—Bishop MacEvilly's Gospel of St. Luke—Bishop Spalding's Mission of the Irish People —Sketch of St. Benedict—The Medal of St. Benedict —Father Breen's Anglican Jurisdiction.

BOOKS OF DEVOTION AND SPIRITUAL READING 237

The Little Oremus—Father Sebastian's St. Joseph's Manual—Visits to Jesus on the Altar—Sibthorp's Daily Bread—Segneri's Manna of the Soul—Schmude's Dévotion au Sacré Cœur—O'Keefe's Moral Discourses —Murphy's How to Live Piously—Luis of Granada's Meditations on the Passion—Father Sebastian Bowden's Miniature Life of Mary—Father Thaddeus's Pilgrim's

	PAGE
May-Wreath—Cardinal Manning's Holy Ghost the Sanctifier—Father Russell's Emmanuel and Madonna— Mary's Call—Belloc's Solid Virtue—Dom Luck's Life and Miracles of St. Benedict.

BOOKS FOR CHILDREN	242
------------------------------	-----

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
ART. I.—THE WRITINGS OF MR. T. W. ALLIES . . .	243
Twofold reason for present notice—Analysis of “Per Crucem ad Lucem”—Steps in Mr. Allies’ conversion —Royal supremacy and jurisdiction—Analysis of “The See of St. Peter”—Dr. Pusey’s inconsistency— The last thirty years of Anglicanism—Royal supre- macy shown in Dr. Ryle’s nomination—Character of University training for Anglican Ministry.
ART. II.—MR. SHADWORTH HODGSON ON FREE WILL . . .	268
New opponent to teaching on free will—Determinism defined—What is “stronger” and “weaker” desire?— Illustrative case—Critical issue between Mr. Hodgson and writer—Ultimate appeal to experience—Illustra- tions of “Anti-impulsive Effort”—Objection: such effort equally determined by circumstances—Reply— Mr. Hodgson’s replies to writer’s arguments—Virtue and self-interest may often be pleasurable motives— Latent thoughts or qualities admitted—What are motives of anti-impulsive effort?—Mr. Hodgson’s objection illustrated and refuted—Determinists confuse different moral actions—Anti-impulsive effort made by personal exertion—Comments on Mr. Hodgson’s affir- mative position—Determinism and guilt.
ART. III.—WESTERN SUSSEX	303
Reaction of late years in favour of home scenery and travel: its cause—Symptoms of this reaction—View from Leith Hill—Comparison of this view with foreign prospects criticized—Italy and England—Local investiga- tion recommended—Archæological societies—Materials for history of Sussex—Appearance and character of the population—Men of talent—General character of Sussex scenery—The climate—The soil—The sea-board— The weald—St. Leonard's forest—Geology of the weald—Forest legends.	PAGE

ART. IV.—SPENSER AS A TEXT-BOOK	321
Value of vernacular "humanities"—Criteria of the value of a humanity text-book—Is the "Faery Queene" a suitable text-book?—Three qualifications of a good text- book—Spenser compared with Virgil—Licentiousness of Spenser—Anti-Catholic bias—Secret of Spenser's anti- Catholic animosity—Spenser's zeal for extirpation of the Irish—His end.
ART. V.—THE TRUTH AND FALSEHOOD OF M. RENAN'S LECTURES	333
Significance of the choice of M. Renan for these lectures— Possible good they may effect—Objection to using his evidence for Catholicity: reply—A summary of M. Renan's hypotheses—His historical theory partly true and partly false—True grounds of Roman supremacy— Renan teaches that the early Christian Church was not a national Church—That it was distinguished by an Hierarchical spirit—That Roman, not "vital Christianity" conquered the world—Adverse criticism of M. Renan—He mistakes the relation of Christianity to Judaism and the hostile camps in the early Church —Christian religion divine.
ART. VI.—HISTORY OF THE PRUSSIAN "KULTURKAMPF"	360
State of the Church in Prussia at beginning of 1875— Government threatens an Oath of Supremacy—Arro- gance of Bismarck—Suppression of all Religious Orders —Failure of attempts to coerce Catholics—Persecution of the Bishops—Instruction of children taken from the Clergy—Effects of the death of Pope Pius IX.—The Kissingen interviews with the Papal Nuncio—Puttkamer succeeds Falk—Prospects.
ART. VII.—MIRACLES AND MEDICAL SCIENCE	386
Preliminary remarks: proper antecedent mental state regarding the miraculous—Recent observations on nervous system bearing on miracles—Cases of sudden natural cure—Comparison of these with cases at Lourdes—Three crucial Lourdes cases.

ART. VIII.—BELGIUM AND THE HOLY SEE 399

Organized legal resistance to Education Law—Catholic citizens doubly taxed—Success of Catholic schools—Zeal of Clergy—M. Frère-Orban and the Legation—Good faith and earnestness of Holy See—Liberal negotiations with Rome a mere blind—M. Frère-Orban anxious to break with Holy See—Disagreement between Holy See and Bishops a fiction—The Dumont episode—The Legation withdrawn—Papal memorandum—Charges against the Nuncio unjust—Catholic prospects in Belgium.

ALLOCUTION OF POPE LEO XIII. ON THE AFFAIRS OF BELGIUM . 439

NOTICES OF CATHOLIC PERIODICALS 443

Katholik — Historisch-politische Blätter — La Civiltà Cattolica—Scuola Cattolica—Revue des Questions Historiques—Polybiblion.

NOTICES OF BOOKS 457

Mr. FitzPatrick's Life, Letters, and Correspondence of Dr. Doyle—Canon Simmons's Lay Folks Mass Book—Messrs. Spence and Exell's Pulpit Commentary—Kent's Corona Catholica—Translation of Gaume's Catechism of Perseverance—Rev. H. Formby's Ancient Rome and Christian Religion—Father Goepfert's Life of Ven. Libermann—De Philippis' Vade Mecum Confessariorum—Parker's Forum Romanum—Kaufmann's Dissonanzen und Akkorde—Mahaffy's History of Classical Greek Literature—Cleyne's Prophecies of Isaiah—Translation of Aladel's Miraculous Medal—FitzPatrick's Doyle's Essay on Education—Wace's Foundations of Faith—Frantz's Sixtus IV.—Cantica Sion, or English Anthems to Latin Words—West's Edition of Haug's Essays on the Sacred Language, &c., of the Parsis—Mann's Translation of Weber's Indian Literature—Passages from Matthew Arnold's Prose Writings—Br. Foley's Records of English Province S. J.—Principal Caird's Philosophy of Religion—Professor Caird's Philosophy of Kant—O'Connor's Translation of Chérancé's St. Francis of Assisi—Baildon's Spirit of Nature—Rev. R. Owen's Sanctorale Catholicum—Le Cointe and Collins's Lives of Père Eudes—Julien's Papes et Sultans—Lady Herbert's Wayside Tales—Mémoire pour la défense des Congrégations Religieuses—Burke's Historical Portraits—Rev. T. E. Gibson's Crosby Records—Canon Cholmondeley's Passage of the Four RAP—Le Page Renouf's Religion of Ancient Egypt—Capecelatro's Vita di S. Filippo Neri—Father Galloghy's Armagh Cathedral—Malone's Church History of Ireland—Dr. Kalisch's Path and Goal—Cardinal Manning's Temporal Power of the Pope—Mrs. Eckel's Maria Monk's Daughter.